MENTAL ILLNESS RECOVERY CENTER, INC. HOLDS ANNUAL 52 WINDOWS EVENT
Proceeds to Benefit Midlands Housing and Homeless Programs

Columbia, S.C. – The Mental Illness Recovery Center, Inc. (MIRCI) is holding its annual benefit, 52 Windows, at 701 Whaley Street on Thursday, May 12 at 6 p.m. The event will support MIRCI’s Housing and Homeless Programs.

An evening of art, 52 Windows will feature the works of artists: Marshall Foster, Sam Wilkins, Barrie Tompkins, Stephen Chesley, Michael Story, Irene Tison, Brian Rego, Julia Seabrook Moore, Heather LaHaise, and Missy McIver. Attendees will have the opportunity to purchase works by these featured artists in addition to pieces provided by friends of MIRCI.

The event will also include a silent auction, heavy hour d’oeuvres provided by Aberdeen Catering, an open bar, and live music by The Knott Trio.

The proceeds raised from the event will benefit MIRCI’s Housing and Homeless services. MIRCI provides services to individuals who are homeless and have a mental illness. The Housing programs help transition individuals and families into stable supported housing.
